Playing Golf with the Approach

- 1 Select Play.
- 2 Select a course from the list.

Map Features

The map shows an overview of the current hole you are playing. Your location on the course is represented by a golf ball.

①	Displays the hole number. The number of dots indicates par.
②	Displays the distance to the middle of the green. If you are measuring distance (page 1), this number is the total distance of the two legs. NOTE: Because pin locations change, the Approach calculates the distance to the middle of the green and not the actual pin location.
③	Ends the round. This icon is only shown on the first and last holes. On all other holes, select  to view the previous hole. Hold  or  to select a specific hole.
④	Moves you to the next hole.
⑤	Displays layup arcs that indicate distance to pin. Four arcs display for par 5 or higher, three arcs display for par 4, and no arcs display for par 3.

Keeping Score

Before you begin keeping score, you must select the scoring method (page 2).

You can keep score for up to four players.

About the Scorecard

You can view and change each player's name, score, and handicap during a round using the scorecard.

②	Total score
③	Actual strokes for the hole
④	Recorded strokes for the hole

About Match Scoring

When you select the Match scoring method (page 2), one point is awarded at each hole to the player who has the fewest strokes. At the end of a round, the player who won the most holes wins.

NOTE: Match scoring is available only for two players.

When you set the Approach to count strokes, the device determines the winner of each round. Otherwise, at the end of each hole, select the player who had the fewest strokes, or if the number of strokes was equal, select Halved.

About Skins Scoring

When you select the skins scoring method (page 2), players compete for a prize on each hole.

When you set the Approach to count strokes, the device determines the winner of each hole. Otherwise, at the end of each hole, select the player who had the fewest strokes. You can select multiple players if there is a tie for the win.

About Stableford Scoring

When you select the Stableford scoring method (page 2), points are awarded based on the number of strokes taken relative to par. At the end of a round, the highest score wins. The Approach awards points as specified by the United States Golf Association.

NOTE: The scorecard for a Stableford scored game shows points instead of strokes.

 - If you do not want to save the shot, select Reset.

- If you want to add the shot distance to a club average, select Add to Average, and select the club you used for the shot. The device adds the shot distance to previously saved distances to calculate the average shot distance for the club (page 4).
- If you want to add the shot distance to a club, but not to the club average, select  > Save Shot > , select a player name, and select a club to add a shot to that player's club. The device saves the shot individually, and the shot does not affect the average for the club.
